

WHERE INNOVATION MEETS RESPONSIBILITY
India's global textile trade fair will showcase the best of trade, technology, and tradition.

Bharat Tex, 2025 is a global textile event that's organised by the twelve Indian Textile Export Promotion Councils (EPCs) and supported by the Ministry of Textiles, Government of India.

The mega event is set to take place at Bharat Mandapam, New Delhi and India Expo Centre and Mart, Greater Noida.

The event will showcase India's prowess as a premier textile manufacturing hub, encompassing the entire value chain, from raw materials to finished products. The event will highlight the diversity and richness of Indian textiles, while emphasising the industry's manufacturing strength as well as its commitment to sustainability and circularity.

Hosted at two state-of-the-art venues; Bharat Mandapam in New Delhi and India Expo Centre and Mart in Greater Noida, this mega event will showcase a vast array of products.

At the main exhibition venue, i.e. Bharat Mandapam, New Delhi, the entire textile value chain will be on display from 14th February to 17th February. With over 2,20,000 sq. meters of area, visitors can explore a diverse selection of apparel, home furnishings, and textile-based handicrafts. The event will also feature an extensive range of fabrics, yarns, fibers, and threads, alongside exquisite carpets, silk, and floor coverings. Additionally, technical textiles and many other innovative textile products will be on display, making this event a comprehensive showcase of the textile industry's finest offerings.

The second venue is the India Expo Centre and Mart in Greater Noida, where a range of products including apparel, textile machinery, chemicals, and dyes will be exhibited from 12th February to 15th February.

The event aims to draw top policymakers, business CEOs, textile thought leaders, international networks, designers, and master craftspeople. With over 5,000 exhibitors from around the world, 6,000 overseas buyers from over 110 countries, and more than 1,20,000 visitors expected, Bharat Tex is poised to be a landmark event in the global textile calendar.

The event also promises a vibrant and enriching conference experience with over 70 sessions focused on the latest trends in the textile ecosystem. Attendees can look forward to CEO roundtables, Government-to-Government (G2G) meetings, and Business-to-Business (B2B) interactions. Key global sessions will delve into strategies for building resilience across the value chain, ESG (Environmental, Social, and Governance) initiatives, and future fashion trends, among other topics. India-specific sessions will focus on policy support for the textile sector and the attractiveness of India as an investment destination for textiles.

Bharat Tex will also present a diverse array of other activities including a designer ensemble showcasing innovative fashion as well as reverse buyer-seller meets designed to foster new business opportunities. The event will also feature dedicated pavilions on sustainability and recycling, showcasing how Indian companies are leading the world in circular practices. It highlights sustainable and circular practices inherent to India as well as new innovations driving the green momentum in the country. The developments made by India towards resource efficiency, clean, green energy, and advances made by India's textile clusters and companies towards addressing global sustainability issues shall be on display.

The event promises to be a tapestry of experiences, weaving together the rich and diverse heritage of Indian textiles with its strengths in modern and sustainable manufacturing. This grand celebration of textiles will showcase the intricate craftsmanship and vibrant traditions that have been passed down through generations. It will also spotlight contemporary advancements in the textile industry. It is a true synergy of art, innovation, and business.
