

EVENT BRIEF

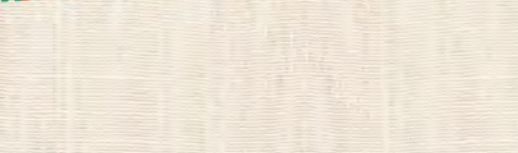

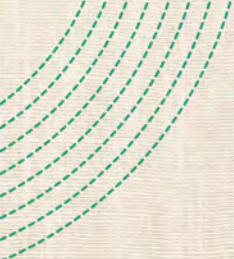

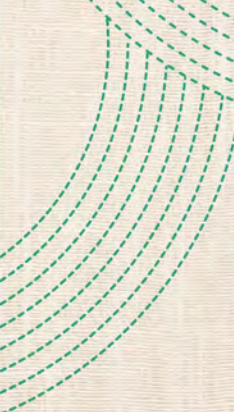

BHARAT TEX 2026 POWERING THE NEXT ERA OF TEXTILES

India's global textile trade fair to showcase the best of trade, technology, sustainability and tradition

Bharat Tex 2026 is a global textile event organized by the Bharat Tex Trade Federation (BTTF), comprising of the leading textile Export Promotion Councils (EPCs) and associations, and supported the Ministry of Textiles, Government of India. The mega event is set to take place from July 14 to 17, 2026 at the iconic Bharat Mandapam in New Delhi.

This landmark event is envisioned as a dynamic confluence that celebrates the finest of India's textile sector, seamlessly weaving together timeless heritage, cutting-edge innovation, sustainability, and far-reaching global markets. Showcasing the entire textile value chain - from fibres, yarns, and innovative fabrics to exquisite apparel, elegant home textiles, artisanal handlooms, intricate handicrafts, opulent carpets and technical textiles - Bharat Tex 2026 proudly positions India as a vibrant global textile epicentre where innovation harmonizes with responsibility and sustainability leading the way toward a resilient and future-ready industry.

Spanning over 1,60,000 square meters, Bharat Tex 2026 would showcase over 23,000 meticulously curated product displays that embody the dynamic evolution of trends within the global textile ecosystem. The event will bring together a dynamic and diverse spectrum of stakeholders, including policymakers, global industry captains, influential CXOs, celebrated designers, masterful artisans, pioneering innovators, and esteemed industry partners. This immersive platform offers an opportunity to engage in thoughtfully curated experiences-catalyzing trade and investment, promoting smart manufacturing and circular economy principles, and inspiring cross-sectoral innovation.

Carrying forward the momentum of the previous 2 editions, the event will feature over 5,500 exhibitors and more than 15,000 buyers, including 7,000 international buyers representing 130+ countries. Bharat Tex 2026 anticipates over 10,000 focused B2B meetings and a remarkable visitor turnout over 1,20,000. It promises unmatched networking avenues with key global brands and retailers, domestic industry leaders, suppliers, innovators and cutting-edge technology providers from around the world.

Bharat Tex 2026 presents a dynamic global textile dialogue with 40+ knowledge sessions led by global and Indian industry leaders and experts. From global megatrends and ESG imperatives to Industry 4.0, R&D, and sustainable supply chains, the ideation would benefit a wide array of stakeholders by opening new avenues for MSMEs, inspiring students and academia, and equipping entrepreneurs and industry leaders to stay ahead in a rapidly evolving global textile landscape.

Bharat Tex 2026 will also feature a vibrant spectrum of experiences that go beyond business-immersing visitors in the artistry, innovation, and sustainability that define India's textile landscape. From live fabric testing zones and trend labs to interactive innovation pavilions and sustainability showcases, the event will highlight how Indian companies are driving global conversations on circularity and green manufacturing. This four-day extravaganza offers a unique platform to engage the global textile fraternity, celebrate India's enduring legacy, and set the stage for the next era of global textile industry.
